SMALL TABLES

Antonio Citterio

Description

The Mirto Indoor range has been enriched with new elements such as low tables, service tables, ottomans and consoles, and introduces the new pewter painted finish for the metal structures. Among these proposals, an original solution for the low table, which features a textile upholstered top enriched at the edges by matching tones or contrasting profiles. Also new, the ottoman with a cushion that rests on an aluminium base structure with the existing finishes present in the series, chrome black painted and pewter painted.
