

179 ALTAIR CHAIR

By Anthony Guerrée

Altair is the brightest star in the northern constellation of Aquila, and forms part of the Summer Triangle asterism, along with stars Deneb and Vega.

The Altair chair embodies avant-garde design with its radical lines, artfully playing with the concept of the triangle. Each element of the chair is meticulously crafted, embracing the geometric essence of triangles to establish a bold and edgy presence. Altair beckons with sharp angles and a visually compelling geometry, inviting anyone to take a seat and experience the marriage of form and function. The angularity of the chair promotes a sense of dynamism, making it a conversation piece in any contemporary setting. It is the perfect complement to Deneb Desk.
