

3300[™]

The 3300[™] series was created for the SAS Terminal at the Royal Hotel in Copenhagen, one of Arne Jacobsen's architectural masterpieces. In harmony with Jacobsen's architectural work at that time, the 3300 series is cool and formal. Furthermore, the 3300 series exudes Jacobsen's unfailing sense of line and proportion and his ability to design everlasting classics. Arne Jacobsen got the inspiration for the 3300 series from a sofa, which he had designed especially for his own home in the 1940s. The 3300 series forms an elegant contrast to the organic shapes of the Egg[™] and Swan[™] chairs, also designed especially for the Royal Hotel.

ARNE JACOBSEN 1902-1971

The cooperation between Arne Jacobsen and Fritz Hansen dates back to 1934. But it was in 1952 the break-through came with the Ant™. It was succeeded by the Series 7™ in 1955. This propelled his and Fritz Hansen's names into furniture history. Arne Jacobsen was very productive both as an architect and as a designer. At the end of the 50s Arne Jacobsen designed the Royal Hotel in Copenhagen, and for that project the Egg™, the Swan™, the Swan™ sofa and Series 3300™. Arne Jacobsen was and is an admired and outstanding designer. While the significance of Arne Jacobsen's buildings was less appreciated, his furniture and other design work have become national and international heritage.
